THE Numb. 356.

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, February 20, 1752.

RIPEN (in Denmark), September 15.

IN the Night between the 10th and 11th of this Month, a furious Storm aroſe at South Weſt, which came round the next Morning to the North Weſt. The Sea ran ſo very high, that the whole Town, as well as the adjacent Country, was under Water from 4 in the Morning, till 9 at Night, and the Storm ſo furious, that we frequently expected that the Houſes would be torn from their Foundations, and carried away. In the ſucceeding Night the Wind ſunk, and the Water likewiſe. On the 12th the Wind aroſe again, but not ſo violent as the Day before; we ſaw on every Side, Veſſels break to Pieces or overſet, ſome of which were carried very far within Land, and were left there upon the Ebb. The Damage done to our Buildings and Dykes is very conſiderable, and divers Ships of ſeveral Nations, have been wreck'd, during the boiſterous Weather.

Cologne, October 4. Letters from Upper Auſtria adviſe, that there lately happen'd at Ottenſheim, a little Town about a Mile from Lintz, a terrible Fire, whereby 110 Houſes, and the Church, were reduced to Aſhes.

Lyons, Sept. 23. By Letters from Provence we are informed, that great Part of the Foreſts, ſituated between the River Var and Toulon, which is near thirty Leagues, have lately been deſtroyed by Fire, to the very great Loſs, not only of the Owners thereof, but even to Commerce, as it has made Wood very dear in all the neighbouring Countries: How this unfortunate Accident happened no one could tell, but it is generally believed that it was done on Purpoſe by ſome ill minded People.

Paris, Sept. 30. Five Ships are arrived at Rouen, with Corn from Amſterdam, where they left ſeveral others taking in the ſame Lading for the ſame Port; and above double that Number are expected from England, with the ſame valuable Commodity.

Vienna, October 2. It is ſaid a Reſolution has been taken to keep 30,000 Imperial Troops on Foot in Bohemia, for the enabling this Court to be always ready to fulfil it's Engagements with that of Ruſſia. Her Imperial Majeſty has ſent Orders to the Commanding Officers of her Forces quartered on the Frontiers of Hungary, bordering on the Dominions of the Grand Signior, to cauſe the Troops under their Command immediately to form a Line, in order to prevent the Plague, which ſtill rages pretty much in ſome of the neighbouring Provinces, being brought into her Dominions.

Paris, October 7. Our laſt Letters from Liege adviſe, that the Proteſtants had aſſembled at Maeſtricht, and tore from off the Catholic Church the Bull of the Jubilee, and had burnt it. The States having forbidden the Catholics from making Proceſſions, had impriſoned the Curate of Wick in the Tower of St. Peter, for having diſobey'd this Prohibition. It is aſſured, that the Prince Biſhop of Liege is reſolved to have Satisfaction for this laſt Affair, and has ſent an Expreſs for that Purpoſe to the Hague, and to Paris.

Berlin, October 5. The laſt Poſt from Sileſia, has brought Advice of a dreadful Fire, that happened a few Days ago at Sulau, whereby the greateſt Part of that Town has been reduced to Aſhes, together with the Church of the Evangelics, and ſome other Buildings of Note. According to ſome Accounts, there is not a Houſe left ſtanding; but all agree, that no Lives have been loſt in this Calamity, though the People are reduced to the greateſt Diſtreſs, few of them having ſaved any of their Effects.

Leghorn, Sept. 12. We hear that the Chriſtian Merchants eſtabliſhed at Santa Crocia and Saphi, after a great Buſtle at the Court of the Emperor of Morocco, obtained a Letter to the Daniſh Ambaſſador, deſiring that the Daniſh Company would take off all the Merchandize and Effects of the ſaid Merchants, and likewiſe what was due to them in the Country; or, inſtead thereof, permit them to remain there 'til they had diſpoſed of their Effects, and recovered their Debts: But that the Ambaſſador, regardleſs of this Letter, ſignified to them that they muſt ſell their Effects within the Space of Forty Days, and then quit the Port immediately.

P. S. We are juſt now informed, that the Daniſh Miniſter has been prevailed upon to give them a little longer Time, and that after the Expiration of the Term he has now fix'd, they can neither diſpoſe of any Effects, or receive any Debts due to them in their Country.

Whitehall, October 13. This Day an Expreſs arrived at his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle's Office, from Solomon Dayrolle, Eſq; his Majeſty's Reſident to the States General of the United Provinces, with an Account, That on Friday the 11th Inſtant, about Two o'Clock in the Morning, his moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, Hereditary Stadtholder, Captain General and Admiral General of the United Provinces of the Low Countries, died after a very ſhort Illneſs. And the ſame Day the States General, and alſo the States of Holland, ſent a Deputation with Compliments of Condolance to the Princeſs Royal upon this melancholy Event, and to adminiſter to her Royal Highneſs the Oaths as Governante and Guardian to the young Prince Stadtholder her Son.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, October 15. The Court goes into Mourning on Sunday next, the 20th Inſtant, for his late moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, Hereditary Stadtholder, Captain General and Admiral General of the United Provinces of the Low Countries, viz.

The Ladies to wear black Bombaſteen, plain Muſlin, or long Lawn Linnen, Crape Hoods, Shammy Shoes and Gloves, and Crape Fans.

Undreſſed, dark Norwich Crape.

The Men to wear black Cloth, without Buttons on the Sleeves or Pockets, plain Muſlin or long Lawn Cravats and Weepers, Shammy Shoes and Gloves, Crape Hatbands, and black Swords and Buckles.

Undreſſed, dark grey Frocks.

LONDON.

October 8. To Day's Advices from Conſtantinople, dated Sept. 4. N. S. mention the Plague's raging there to ſuch a Degree, as to render the Miſery and Calamity of the Inhabitants inexpreſſible, through the Want of almoſt every Neceſſary of Life, &c. 'Tis computed that upwards of 300,000 Perſons have been carried off by that Diſtemper.

Some Time ago one of our Captains in the City Militia, aged 70, who has an Eſtate of about 200*l.* per Annum, having ſome Words with his Son, who wanted his Father's Money, and was upbraiding him that he never gave him any Thing, when the old Man told him, in a great Pett, he had given him a Horſe, &c. and immediately, to be revenged on his Son, calls to his Servant, a Girl about Nineteen, and bid her follow him, which ſhe did, when the old Man went and married her directly.——The Son, in return for this raſh Proceeding, brought his Horſe the next Morning to his Father's Houſe, cut the poor Creature's Throat, and left him dead at the Door.

Some private Letters from Berlin intimate, that in another Poſt or two we may expect to hear of the Concluſion of an Alliance of the utmoſt Conſequence between two conſiderable Courts of Europe.

October 10. The old Treaty of Commerce, which the Dutch were ſo deſirous of renewing with France, expired on the firſt Inſtant; but has been prolong'd by the Favour of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty for the Space of ſix Months, in Hopes that, within this Period, a new Treaty may be concluded, and nothing happen on either Side inconſiſtent with that perfect Harmony and good Underſtanding which he wiſhes may ever ſubſiſt between the Crown of France and the Republic.

Extract of a Letter from Poole, dated Sept. 23.

"Tueſday laſt arrived the Molly, Watts, from Hamburgh, who confirms the melancholy News of the Damage done in that Country, by the overflowing of the River Elbe, with the Addition, that the Water on the Bar was 16 or 18 Feet higher than uſual at the higheſt Tides, and that Boats might be rowed in every Street in Hamburgh, ſo that the Damage ſuſtained by the Inhabitants is prodigious; and this Day the Chatfiele, Reed, arrived from Ditto, who likewiſe confirms it."

October 19. By the Act of Settlement on the Death of the late Prince of Orange, the Duke of Brunſwick Wolfenbuttle is to act as Captain General and Lord High Admiral, during the preſent Prince's Minority.

Yeſterday arrived an Expreſs from Holland, which brought an Account, that the Courier that was diſpatched to notify the Death of his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, was met on the Road by another Courier, who was coming to the Prince of Orange's Court, to acquaint them of the Death of the Dowager Princeſs of Orange, the Stadtholder's Mother.

The firſt Mourning for the Prince of Orange will end on Sunday the firſt of December, and the Birth Day of his Majeſty will be kept on Thurſday the fifth following.

Letters from Holland by the laſt Dutch Mail, dated October 21. N. S. pretended that they have Advice at Amſterdam of the Return of the Squadron that ſailed from Breſt in July laſt, but ſeem to be deficient in aſcertaining the Fact, as they don't mention the Date of the Arrival at Breſt: Upon which it is obſervable, that the Letters by Yeſterday's French Mail, which are dated the 23d, are quite ſilent on this Head, tho' they ought to have earlier Intelligence of it than the Dutch can poſſibly have. So that one may ſtill be allowed to ſuppoſe that Squadron may be gone to the Eaſt-Indies, as it is certain that the two Frigates which were detached from it, to take on board a conſiderable Sum at Cadiz, belonging to the French India Company, were ſerved the Moment they arrived, the Money having been kept in Readineſs to be ſhipp'd off at an Hour's Warning.——Was this Money taken up in ſuch a Hurry only to be brought to Breſt?

According to ſome private Letters from Paris, when Complaint was lately made about a certain Nobleman ſent thither in the Character of a Pl-n--p-y, the Anſwer given in the King's Name was, That his P———n M———y being a very wiſe P——ce, he could not but approve of any Man he judged properly qualified to manage his Affairs.

BOSTON.

December 23. By Capt. Waldo, from Kingſton in Jamaica, we are informed, that the Day before he ſail'd, a Bermuda built Sloop from New-York, was towed in there by a Veſſel from St. Kitts, the Maſter and moſt of the Men having been waſhed overboard and drowned; but Captain Waldo does not remember the Maſter's Name.

December 30. About 3 o'Clock laſt Tueſday Morning, in a violent Snow Storm, the Ship Bumper, Capt. Cuſſens, bound hither from London, but laſt from Halliſax, was drove on the Rocks near Pull-in-Point, and bilged. The Men, 14 or 15 in Number, got aſhore in their Boat, tho' very wet, and much fatigued, and afterwards with great Difficulty, all travelled to the firſt Houſe they could find, except Mr. Maſon, a Paſſenger, who was ſo overcome with the Cold, &c. that he died on the Beach. Capt. Cuſſens and ſeveral of the People are much froze and bruiſed, but 'tis hoped they will all do well.

The ſame Morning about 7 o'Clock, Captain Morton, in a Sloop coming in from Halliſax, had the Misfortune to run upon the Rocks, near Cape Anne, by which Accident the Sloop is loſt, but the People, Thirty-three in Number, Paſſengers included, happily eſcaped with their Lives, and were were kindly aſſiſted and entertained by the People on Shore.

NEW-YORK.

January 13. By a Letter from Jamaica, we are informed, that the Sloop Free-Maſon, Capt. Perkins, who ſailed from hence the 16th of Auguſt laſt, overſet on the 5th of September following; by which Misfortune, Capt. Perkins and three others were drowned: The reſt of the Crew remained on the Veſſel until the 26th of October, in great Diſtreſs, being often obliged to drink their own Urine, when they were happily met with by Capt. Corlop, who tow'd them into Jamaica.

Laſt Week a young Woman was committed to Goal for ſtealing wearing Apparel, to a conſiderable Value, out of the Houſe of Mr. William Pairtree Smith. She got into the Houſe in the Duſk of the Evening, and concealed herſelf under a Bed, 'til the Family were aſleep, when ſhe perpetrated her Deſign, and not only took Things more valuable, but even the poor Servant Maid's Cloaths that ſhe pull'd off when ſhe went to Bed.

January 20. Laſt Week arrived here Captain Sheldon, from Tarpaulin Cove, who informs us, that one Capt. Jefferſon, of Rhode Iſland, was arrived there Paſſenger in a Brig from Jamaica, who acquainted him, that 14 Sail of Engliſh Veſſe's from the Bay of Honduras, himſelf being one, had been caſt away on the Iſland of Cuba, in the Time of the late Hurricane:——That moſt of the Men had ſaved their Lives, and got to the Havannah; amongſt the reſt, he remembers to have heard of the Veſſels of Capt. Shourt, and Capt. M'Connell, of New-York, the latter of which he learnt had been killed by his Men at Sea, before he was caſt away; and that it had been diſcovered at the Havannah, where the Villains had been apprehended. He thinks there was another New-York Veſſel, but would not be certain;——as he ſaw but few of the Engliſh, before he got a Paſſage to Jamaica.

Jan. 27. By the Albany Poſt, we hear of ſeveral Accidents on Perſons croſſing the North River on the Ice: At Poukeepſie two Horſes in a Sleigh, were drown'd, about 10 Days ago, and another near Philipſe's upper Mills; and on Tueſday laſt, a Sleigh with three or four Perſons in it, was obſerved to go on the River in order to croſs it, a little above Tappan; and on coming near the Middle on a full Drive, fell in, and were no more ſeen.

PHILADELPHIA.

January 21. We hear from Trenton, that in the Night between the 6th and 7th Inſtant, the Houſe of James Rutherford was broke open there, and Goods to a conſiderable Value carried off, with about Forty Pounds in Caſh.

Tueſday laſt John Webſter attempted to hang himſelf in the Dungeon of the Jail of this City, but was prevented by one of the Keepers accidentally going down juſt as he was expiring.

Jan. 28. On the ſixth Inſtant a Court of Oyer and Terminer was held at Dover, in Kent County, when Archibald Cunningham, and Alice his Wife, were indicted and found guilty of the barbarous Murder of Eleanor Gollohar, on the 25th of December laſt, in Duck-Creek Hundred. A particular Account of this cruel Affair would have been inſerted; but it was perpetrated in ſuch a ſhocking Manner, that a Regard to Decency forbids our deſcribing it. Richard Price was alſo indicted, and found guilty of ſtealing a Mare, the Property of Simon Hirons, of Motherkill Hundred. They all received Sentence of Death; but Price is ſince reprieved, and Cunningham and his Wife are ordered to be executed on the 8th of next Month.

ANNAPOLIS.

This Day arrived in Weſt-River from London, Capt. George Bell, in the Brig Grove, belonging to Mr. Galloway; having been not quite four Months from this Province, and was three Weeks in London, which he left the 21ſt, and the Downs the 31ſt of December. Capt. Bell informs us, that Capt. Dulany, from Severn, the Captains Hall, Johns, and Waters, from South River; Biggs, Dobbins, and Richardſon, from Patapſco; Chew, Spencer, Coolidge, Sedgwick, and Power, from Patuxent; and Tippil from Potowmack; were all ſafe arrived. Capt. Hammond, from Patuxent, was arrived with five Feet of Water in his Hold. Murray from Somerſet was ſafe arrived. There was no Account of any Ships loſt, from this Province, but ſeveral were not arrived. Capt. Bell ſpoke with a Schooner from London (Caldwell of and for Somerſet) in Long. 72.

Capt. Bell informs us, That Capt. Judd in the Neptune, from Severn River, on his Paſſage to London, in the Night Time, ran foul of another Ship, and received ſome Damage, but not ſo as to hurt his Cargo. The People on board the other Ship called to Capt Judd, to bring to, which he did as ſoon as poſſible; for in the Confuſion they could not tell which Ship was moſt wounded. The other Ship hove out Lights, but as they all diſappeared at once, they are ſuppoſed to have ſunk down and periſh'd. Part of her Head was found on board the Neptune, and they imagined her to be a New-England Ship. Capt. Judd ſail'd from hence about the 20th of Auguſt laſt.

A Letter from London, by Capt. Bell, mentions the Arrival of the following Ships, viz. the Wandſworth, Lloyd, Philip and Jane, Neptune, Betſy, Britannia, Two Brothers, Thames, Charming Polly, Eaſtern Branch, Gooch, Anna, Princeſs, and Swift: And that the Swift, for Severn; the Gooch, for Potowmack; the Anna, for Patuxent; and likewiſe another Ship for Patapſco (all from Mr Hanbury) were fitting out.

We have by the laſt Southern Poſt, in the Virginia Gazette, N°. 49, the following Article, viz. "The "Greyhound, Capt. Gracey, with 150 Convicts "on board, bound for Maryland, is put into James "River.——We congratulate the Marylanders on "the ſafe Arrival of theſe RECRUITS." Thanks for this Virginian Compliment! But the Author, it is probable, did not think of the old trite Proverb, That the Pot ſhould not call the Kettle Black A——. It is ſaid, Capt. Gracey, who brought THOSE RECRUITS into Potowmack, Sold the chief Part of them on the SOUTH Side of that River;

His Majeſty's more ancient American Plantation;
"————the CREAM of the Britiſh Nation."

By Capt. Bell, we have received the Gentleman's Magazine, for November, from which we have taken the following Articles; viz.

His Majeſty's moſt gracious SPEECH to both Houſes of Parliament, November 14, 1751.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is with great Satisfaction that I meet you in Parliament at this Time, when the Continuance of the public Tranquility, and the flouriſhing Condition of my Kingdoms, leave us nothing to deſire, but to ſecure and improve our preſent Situation. To this End all my Views and Meaſures have been directed, both at home and abroad; and in this State of Things, nothing can give me more real Pleaſure, than to obſerve thoſe ſolid Advantages, which my good Subjects reap from it in their Trade and Manufactures; ſome Branches whereof have alſo received conſiderable Benefit, from the wiſe Proviſions which have been made by this Parliament.

The Treaty lately entered into with the Elector of Bavaria, was laid before you in your laſt Seſſion; and I then acquainted you, that I was taking ſuch further Meaſures, as might tend to ſecure the Tranquility of the Empire, ſupport its Syſtem, and timely prevent ſuch Events, as had been found by Experience to endanger the common Cauſe. I have ſince, for the ſame Purpoſes, in Conjunction with the States General of the United Provinces, found it neceſſary to conclude a Treaty with the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony; which ſhall be communicated to you.

The unfortunate Event of the Prince of Orange's Death, has made no Alteration in the State of Affairs in Holland; and by the prudent and early Meaſures taken there, the Quiet of that Country has been preſerved, and their Government carried on upon the Foundation of the Settlement, which had, with ſo much Foreſight, been previouſly eſtabliſhed by Laws of the Republic. I have received the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances from the States General, of their firm Reſolution to maintain that ſtrict Union and Friendſhip, which ſo happily ſubſiſt between me, and thoſe antient and natural Allies of my Crown.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered Eſtimates of the Expences of the enſuing Year to be prepared, and laid before you; and have no other Supplies to aſk of you, but ſuch as are requiſite for thoſe Services, and for making good ſuch neceſſary Engagements as you are made acquainted with. The Succeſs which has attended your Firmneſs in reducing the Intereſt of the national Debt, will, I am confident, give you the greateſt Satisfaction.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Experience I have had of your dutiful and ſteady Conduct, makes it wholly unneceſſary for me to preſs upon your Unanimity and Diſpatch in your Deliberations. But I cannot conclude, without recommending to you, in the moſt earneſt manner, to conſider ſeriouſly of ſome effectual Proviſions to ſuppreſs thoſe audacious Crimes of Robbery and Violence, which are now become ſo frequent, eſpecially about this great Capital; and which have proceeded, in a great meaſure, from that diſſipate Spirit of Irreligion, Idleneſs, Gaming, and Extravagance, which has of late extended itſelf, in an uncommon Degree, to the Diſhonour of the Nation, and to the great Offence and Prejudice of the ſober and induſtrious Part of my People.

On his Majeſty's retiring from the Houſe, Lord Chief Juſtice Lee, in the Room of the Lord Chancellor who was indiſpoſed, took the Chair; when a Motion was made by the Right Honourable the Earl of Coventry, ſeconded by Lord Willoughby of Parham, for an Addreſs; which was agreed to without Oppoſition, and is as follows:

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, approach your Throne with Hearts full of that Zeal and Affection for your Perſon and Government, which become the moſt faithful Subjects to the beſt of Kings.

We beg Leave, in the firſt Place, to return your Majeſty our humble Thanks for your moſt gracious Speech from the Throne; in which, you have, with ſo much Goodneſs, expreſs'd your Care of our Welfare, and your Delight in our Happineſs. Juſtice, as well as Gratitude, calls upon us to acknowlege the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government; and that the Continuance of the public Tranquility, the proſperous ſituation of your Kingdoms, the flouriſhing Condition of our Commerce, and the Opportunity, which theſe Circumſtances have afforded, for the reducing the Burden of the national Intereſt, are, under the divine Protection, owing to the wiſe Meaſures which your Majeſty has purſued, both at home and abroad, for the true Intereſts of your People.

We are fully ſenſible, that thoſe Meaſures have not been reſtrained merely to preſent Objects, but have been prudently extended to guard againſt future Evils and Dangers. In this Light we conſider the Treaty lately concluded by your Majeſty with the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony; the good Effects of which will, we hope, be fully anſwerable to your great and ſalutary Views.

The Death of the Prince of Orange, a Prince ſo nearly allied to your Majeſty, and of ſuch Importance to the common Cauſe, has given us great Concern; But it is a real Satisfaction to us, that this unfortunate Event has been attended with no ill Conſequence to the State of Affairs in Holland; whoſe Security and Welfare we conſider as intimately connected with our own. The Support of that Government, upon the Settlement which had been before happily eſtabliſhed, and the cordial Aſſurances which your Majeſty has received from the States General, give us the greateſt Pleaſure, and confirm us in that Reſolution which we have long adhered to, of maintaining and cultivating the ſtricteſt Union and Friendſhip with that Proteſtant Republic.

We acknowlege, with all Thankfulneſs, the paternal Regard which your Majeſty has ſhewn for your People, in publicly declaring your juſt Reſentment againſt thoſe audacious Crimes of Robbery and Violence, which, in Defiance of the Laws, are now grown to ſuch an Exceſs, particularly in this Part of the Kingdom. We look upon them as a real Nuiſance and Diſhonour to the Nation; and the Increaſe of Irreligion, Idleneſs, Gaming, and all Kinds of Licentiouſneſs, has been long lamented by all good Men, as the unhappy Source of this and many other Miſchiefs. All Conſiderations, both religious and political, call upon us to put a Stop to theſe growing Evils; and nothing ſhall be wanting, on our Part, to enforce and ſtrengthen the Laws for puniſhing and ſuppreſſing all ſuch wicked Practices, and to prevent and remedy the pernicious Cauſes of them. Permit us, at the ſame Time, to give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, that we are zealouſly determined, in all our Deliberations, to contribute every Thing in our Power to the Security and Quiet of your Majeſty's Government, the Happineſs of your People, and the Glory of your Reign.

His Majeſty's moſt gracious ANSWER.

My Lords,

I thank you very kindly for this dutiful and affectionate Addreſs. The Satisfaction you ſhew in the Meaſures I have taken both at home and abroad, for the Preſervation of the public Peace, and for the Advancement of the Intereſts of my People, is very agreeable to me; and cannot fail of having a good Effect, for promoting thoſe great and ſalutary Views.

In

In the H—— of C——, the following Address was moved for by Lord Down, one of the Representatives for the County of York, in an elegant Speech, wherein he enlarged on the Glory of his Majesty's Reign, the Happiness of the present Times, the flourishing Condition of our Manufactures, the Increase of our Commerce, and the Security of these Blessings by the wise and prudent Measures taken for the Support of the System of the Empire, &c. He was seconded by Sir W. B. Proctor, and the Address would have passed Nem. con. but Sir J. H. C—n objected to the Words in a flourishing Condition, which he thought not proper, as the ordinary Supplies in Time of Peace could not be raised within the Year, without having Recourse to the sinking Fund, and increasing the national Debt instead of lessening it.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, humbly beg Leave to return your Majesty our most hearty Thanks for your Majesty's most gracious Speech from the Throne.

Permit us, Sir, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to express our lively and due Sense of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's wise and just Government, and our well grounded Confidence, that your Majesty's Views are, and ever will be, directed to no other End, than to secure and improve the present flourishing Condition of your Kingdoms. The Regard your Majesty is pleased to testify for the Advancement of our Trade and Manufactures, as it is a signal Instance of your Majesty's constant and universal Attention to the Welfare of your Subjects, demands our sincerest Acknowlegements; and it cannot but be Matter of the highest Satisfaction to us, that the Provisions, made for that Purpose by this Parliament, in Pursuance of your Majesty's most gracious Recommendation, have produced the desired Effect.

We unfeignedly assure your Majesty, that we will readily concur in all such Measures, as tend to secure the inestimable Blessings of Peace to us, by establishing more firmly the general Tranquility in Europe. Affected with the deepest Concern, we condole with your Majesty on the unfortunate Event of the Death of the Prince of Orange; but, at the same Time, beg Leave to express the great Consolation we feel, from the strong Assurances given to your Majesty, on this Occasion, by the States General of the United Provinces, which leave us no Room to Doubt of the Continuance of that strict Union and Friendship, so essential to the Interests of both Countries.

Your faithful Commons with the utmost Chearfulness promise to grant to your Majesty such Supplies, as may enable your Majesty to fulfil the Engagements, and answer the several Services, which shall be found necessary for the public Good.

We cannot sufficiently acknowlege your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness, in recommending to our Consideration the Mischiefs and Dishonour, which arise to this Nation from the audacious Crimes of Robbery and Violence, so notorious of late to all the World; and we humbly assure your Majesty, that we will seriously proceed in reviving and enforcing such Laws, as may contribute to suppress those Enormities, by discouraging Irreligion, Idleness, Gaming, and Immorality, by promoting Industry, and establishing good Order amongst your Majesty's Subjects.

His Majesty's most gracious ANSWER.

Gentlemen.

I THANK you most heartily for this very affectionate Address. Nothing can give me so great Pleasure as to see my People happy. It shall be my constant Care, as far as in me lies, to make them so.

November 9. The King reviewed in the Green Park, St. James's, Col. Rich's Regiment of Foot, called the King's Tangier Regiment raised in 1680; were present the Duke of Cumberland, Lord Cadogan, General Huske, and Sir Robert Rich.—They made a very fine Appearance, and after the Review marched over Westminster Bridge to Quarters in Kent.

November 14. The Wife of James Piercy of Old Romford, was delivered of three Boys, christened Matthew, Mark, and Luke, and likely to live; the was that Day eleven Months delivered of three Boys and a Girl; and the Father has had a Child by his Maid.

It is aver'd, that in a Parish of the Suburbs of London, not containing above 560 Houses, there are 8 or 900 Papists, a considerable Number of whom are Priests.

By a moderate Computation, no less than 13,000 Persons are now unemployed in the Silk Manufacture of Spittle Fields, occasioned by the long Mourning.

On the 15th past, an Eruption of Mount Vesuvius began; on the 26th the whole Cavity appeared in a Blaze; and next Day two Streams of liquid Fire descended in Torrents towards the Sea. The Virtuosi, by Observations lately made, calculate the Duration of these Eruptions to a very few Hours.

November 20. An Order passed the House of C——ns that the Hon. Mr. Alexander Murray be again committed close Prisoner to Newgate: Resolved also, that he do receive the said Sentence at the Bar of this House on his Knees; and Ordered, That the Serjeant at Arms do take him into Custody for that Purpose.

—And a Complaint being made to the House of a printed Pamphlet entitled, The Case of the Honourable Alexander Murray, Esqr in an Appeal to the People of G. B. more particularly to the Inhabitants of the City and Liberties of Westminster; the said Pamphlet was brought up to the Table, and read; when it was resolved, nem. con. "That the said Pamphlet is an impudent, malicious, scandalous, and seditious Libel, falsely and most injuriously reflecting upon, and aspersing the Proceedings of this House, and tending to create Misapprehensions of the same in the People, to the Dishonour of the House, and in Violation of their Privileges." Whereupon a Resolution pass'd to address his Majesty, to give Directions to the Attorney General to prosecute the Author, Printers, and Publishers of the said scandalous Libel; which was done accordingly.

It is remarkable, that Mr. Murray, at the Close of the last Session, set so light by the Authority of the C——ns, as to go off without paying the Officers Fees.
